Elizabeth Gore serves as co-founder and president of Hello Alice (helloalice.com), which helps businesses launch and grow. A free multi-channel platform powered by AI technology, Hello Alice guides business owners by providing access to funding, networks and services. Through a network of nearly 500,000 companies in all 50 states and across the globe, Hello Alice is building the largest community of business owners in the country while tracking data and trends to increase owner success rate. It is hosting the COVID19 Small Business Resource Center as it believes in business for all by providing access to all owners, especially women, people of color, veterans, and persons with disabilities. Hello Alice exists to serve every American with an entrepreneurial spirit, and it recently closed a $21 million Series B raise.

Elizabeth previously served as entrepreneur-in-residence at Dell Technologies. There, she drove initiatives to support Dell's goals of helping small and medium businesses scale and prosper, fueling the expansion of global entrepreneurship.

Elizabeth personally advises the growth of purpose-driven companies, such as rideshare-commuting company Scoop, and she is an investing limited partner with Portfolia fund. In addition, Elizabeth is part owner of Gore Family Vineyards in Sonoma County. She is the emeritus chair of the United Nations Foundation's Global Entrepreneurs Council and previously served the UN for nearly a decade as the first ever entrepreneur-in-residence for the foundation, as well as vice president of global partnerships, where she founded strategic grassroots efforts like Nothing But Nets, Girl Up, and Shot@Life. Elizabeth is a former United States Peace Corps volunteer for which she served in Bolivia. Elizabeth has also been a leader in organizations like the Points of Light Foundation, Share Our Strength, and the Texas A&M Foundation. People magazine named her one of its "Top 100 Extraordinary Women," Fast Company called her one of the "Most Creative People in Business," and she was named one of Entrepreneur Magazine's "Women to Watch." She has been covered in media outlets like ABC, CBS, CNN, MSNBC, Fox Business, Fortune, Glamour, and Time. Outside of the boardroom, Elizabeth is a world champion equestrian, a sprint triathlete, and has climbed Mt. Kilimanjaro to raise awareness on behalf of the UN. Elizabeth is the chairwoman of the First Partner Project, on behalf of the Governor of the State of CA. Elizabeth resides in Sonoma County with her husband, James Gore, a California elected official, and their two hilarious children.
