

Trauma Toolkit:

Trauma Basics as Applied to the Legal Profession

Presented by: Wendy Wheelwright, LMFT
Adult Services Section Manager
Behavioral Health Division
Sonoma County Department of Health Services

Wendy Wheelwright has been a skilled clinician within Community Mental Health for the past 20 years. She is currently the Adult Services Section Manager in the Behavioral Health Division of Sonoma County Department of Health. She was most recently the Project Manager for HOPE Sonoma, a program to support the emotional recovery of disaster survivors from 2017 through 2020. Additionally, she served as the Quality Improvement Manager for Sonoma County Behavioral Health Division, overseeing system level policy and process improvements. Previously, she served as the Workforce Education and Training Coordinator, facilitating staff development, credentialing, and clinical fidelity of specialty programs. Prior to assuming her role at Sonoma County, she worked with Progress Foundation overseeing the start-up, day-to-day operation, and expansion of the Crisis Residential Unit from a single 6-bed program to multiple 10-12 bed programs. Wendy also has extensive experience as a Forensic Therapist, working with mandated treatment programs, Probation, CPS, and Victim Assistance. She maintains a small private-practice in Santa Rosa, specializing in Trauma-Based Disorders. Wendy has a strong passion for teaching and currently holds a faculty position with the University of San Francisco, teaching in the Masters in Counseling program on weekends and evenings. And when she's not doing any of these things, Wendy is an Opera Singer on the side.
